

Larry Hadley

Factory General Manager, UAE

Larry has more than 13 years' experience with Austrak in which he has developed a broad knowledge of the company through strategic, business roles and hands-on operational experience.

With over 17 years experience within the rail industry, Larry has gained experience in technical manufacturing, business development and factory management. He has played an integral part in the growth of Austrak, providing him with in-depth knowledge of all aspects of the business' systems. Larry is a thorough planner, understanding the necessary steps required to achieve success. He thrives on working through the challenges in this industry and pursues all projects with safety, collaboration and alignment in mind.

As Factory General Manager, Larry is responsible for all aspects of production and quality ex-works. He oversees Business Development work within the Middle East, and assists with relevant Business Development in Australia.

Qualifications: Bachelor of Engineering, University of Melbourne (1992)
 Masters of Business Administration (MBA), Deakin University
 (2005)