

Murray Adams

General Manager

Murray has worked in manufacturing and the Building Products industry for 15 years, having previously worked in Chemical Industry, Food Industry and in Strategy Consulting. A Chemical Engineer by training, since moving to Australia from the UK in 1998, Murray has worked mostly in strategy and general management roles for companies such as Holcim, Fletcher Building and Goodman Fielder.

Murray is focused on keeping people safe, efficiently manufacturing great products for Austrak's customers and building a great team.

Qualifications: Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering (1989) Edinburgh University